SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1943, the class of '55 met for the first time and formed a tribe of twenty-two little "Indians" who invaded the Chester Center Indian Reservation and made it their permanent camping ground. Mrs. Mildred Carnes Noe was the official squaw of the Indians' first tepee. The following papooses were assigned to the tepee for the initial training in Indian techniques: Nancy Blevins, Gail Feltt, Agnes Foreman, Loretta Fox, Suzanne Friar, Daniel Gephart, Glen Gilbert, Dick Harter, Charles McDaniel, Bud Miller, Phyllis Mounsey, John Murray, Linda Needler, Beverlyee Nusbaumer, Myrna Ogle, J. P. Osborn, Gerald Oswalt, Kenneth Penrod, Rex Ramseyer, Bob Zehner, Adeline Ruse, and Mary Ifer. Before the year was over Raymond McDonald, Juanita Payne, and Jimmie Williams joined our camp and before the year ended Charles McDaniel, Mary Ifer, and Jimmie Williams withdrew.

In the second year of training, our squaw leader was Mrs. Esta Speece. Kenneth Penrod, Daniel Gephart, and Gail Feltt left us in the summer vacation, and Carroll Cecil and Jeanetta Keagle came riding in. Later in the year Sharon Osborn and Mary Ifer registered in our encampment.

The third year our instructor was Catherine Smith Ash. Carroll Cecil, Agnes Foreman, and Dick Harter broke camp, and Fred Carnes, Terry Flowers, Vivian Lugar, Vallis McDonald, Evadean Teagle and Frank Van Camp registered. Kenneth Penrod was with us for a short time but then decided to leave. Agnes Foreman came riding in on a pony the second semester.

Mrs. Grace Lillie was our squaw director for the fourth year. When we came back for the fourth year, we found that Raymond McDonald had left us. Later in the year Fred Carnes also left.

Mrs. Eunice Kean was squaw teacher for both the fourth and fifth years. We lost only one papoose, Jeanetta Keagle. We gained James Bell, Ronald Clamme, Edith Coleman, Jim Harris, and Ruth Murray, Margie Hahn, Carroll Cecil and Lloyd Herndon joined us later. In the sixth year Terry Flowers left us. Jesse Foreman, Lois Wilson and Clarence Boyer became members of our camp.

In our seventh and eighth grade pow-wows, we chose our personal chiefs. Mr. Oscar Diehm led us in the first year in Junior High. Lloyd Herndon and Lois Wilson left us to decrease the number on our Indian ground.

Jim Bell, Jesse Foreman, Margie Hahn, and Frank Van Camp left during vacation, but when we started our eighth encampment the next fall, Wayne Millington and Orlie Uhrick had joined us. We elected Delmar Harrold as chief. There were twenty-five Indians in the Freshman Class. Our warriors and squaws who entered the main tribe this year were: Nancy Blevins, Ronnie Clamme, Agnes Foreman, Suzanne Friar, Glen Gilbert, Marjorie Hahn, James Harris, Mary Ifer, Vivian Lugar, Vallis McDonald, Bud Miller, Phyllis Mounsey, John Murray, Ruth Murray, Linda Needler, Beverlyee Nusbaumer, Myrna Ogle, J. P. Osborn, Sharon Osborn, Gerald Oswalt, Juanita Payne, Rex Ramseyer, Adeline Ruse, Bobby Zehner, and one new member, Carol Zimmerman. We chose Mrs. Pat Unkenholtz as our class squaw.

In the tenth year of our settlement, we had a new student, Patsy Nelson. We were very pleased with our class rings. Mr. Huber Settle was our chief warrior.

In the Junior year Patsy Nelson didn't return with the rest of the '55 tribe. Later in the year Marjorie Hahn and Agnes Foreman left us. This year we presented the Junior class play, "A-Feudin' Over Yonder," under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Foy who was our head squaw for this year through high school.

On the morning of August 23, 1954, our tribe of twenty-six Seniors gathered on the reservation at old C.C.H.S. to begin the last year of a twelve year union. We elected our class squaw, Mrs. Kathryn Foy. We gained two new members, Linda Apt and Marlene Hampton. Linda Apt married a chief from Liberty Center and left us. We were disappointed when Mary Ifer didn't return to the reservation after Christmas.

Through the years of our camping, we lost and gained many different Indians. There are twenty-four Indians left to bid you farewell. As we depart from our beloved Tepee and the camping grounds of Chester Center, we wish many happy hunting days to the Juniors and the classes following ours.

We want to thank the members of the faculty for their help and patience through our stay here at Chester Center.

"A Feudin' Over Yonder"

The plot of "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" revolves around the Popoff family and the Fry family who have been feuding for years because one of the Popoff boys said he was going out to shoot an old skunk one day and accidentally shot Paw Fry instead. Periodically Mountain Maggie, a legendary character who travels around the hills nursing the sick, must come to patch up someone hurt in the feud. Rosie Belle Fry, being handy with a gun takes the only unattached male in the hills from under her sister Emmy's nose. Emmy, who'd like to get "hitched," decides she'll end up as an old maid if she doesn't get one of the Popoff boys. But how can she marry someone with whom her family is having a feud? She enlists the aid of Mountain Maggie, who's tired of tending to victims of the feud, to put an end to it. Mountain Maggie, wise in the ways of human nature, convinces Maw Fry and Pappy Popoff that some plain sugar water she gives them is a "love potion" which will make them fall in love. They are tired of being lonely and have just about decided to marry and end the feud, when Rosie Belle arrives with the news that it was all a trick. Once more the feud is going full force. In the end, of course, the feud is ended and everybody is happy, but not before there are quite a few merry mixups and ribtickling situations.

"Along Came Charlie"

The plot was laid in Wyoming where we find "Ma Williams'" Dude Ranch with Buck Rainey as manager. Jane Russel was sent to the ranch by her mother to break off a love affair with suave Allen Mitchell. Bard Bartlett and Gail Marshall were associated with Allen Mitchell in a scheme to sell Mr. Nibley's "Aspen Forks," a valley Buck had had his eyes on for some time, for the outlandish sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

"A Feudin' Over Yonder"

The plot of "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" revolves around the Popoff family and the Fry family who have been feuding for years because one of the Popoff boys said he was going out to shoot an old skunk one day and accidentally shot Paw Fry instead. Periodically Mountain Maggie, a legendary character who travels around the hills nursing the sick, must come to patch up someone hurt in the feud. Rosie Belle Fry, being handy with a gun takes the only unattached male in the hills from under her sister Emmy's nose. Emmy, who'd like to get "hitched," decides she'll end up as an old maid if she doesn't get one of the Popoff boys. But how can she marry someone with whom her family is having a feud? She enlists the aid of Mountain Maggie, who's tired of tending to victims of the feud, to put an end to it. Mountain Maggie, wise in the ways of human nature, convinces Maw Fry and Pappy Popoff that some plain sugar water she gives them is a "love potion" which will make them fall in love. They are tired of being lonely and have just about decided to marry and end the feud, when Rosie Belle arrives with the news that it was all a trick. Once more the feud is going full force. In the end, of course, the feud is ended and everybody is happy, but not before there are quite a few merry mixups and ribtickling situations.

"Along Came Charlie"

The plot was laid in Wyoming where we find "Ma Williams'" Dude Ranch with Buck Rainey as manager. Jane Russel was sent to the ranch by her mother to break off a love affair with suave Allen Mitchell. Bard Bartlett and Gail Marshall were associated with Allen Mitchell in a scheme to sell Mr. Nibley's "Aspen Forks," a valley Buck had had his eyes on for some time. for the outlandish sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.
